; With deckstats.net you can easily build or download The Magic: Collect deck and share it with others - no registration required. And to help you create the perfect deck, deckstats.net will show you many different statistics about your build, such as the mana curve or the chances of drawing a particular map. Use our interactive deckbuilder to build a new deck or upload an existing deck list. Now also with improved mobile support. See the mana curve of your deck, the distribution of mana and more, as well as the likelihood of making each card on this turn. Register a free account to keep the decks under a permanent address, organize them into folders, and ask other users for comments. Want to check your deck before buying all the cards? deckstats.net can generate a proxy for you! Find the best card prices from your deck and buy them directly online. deckstats.net can even create a DCI deck registration form for your deck, with your card and DCI number already filled in.
